We also stock excellent bottled ales that are produced Directly from a brewery in St. Albans, Hertfordshire ... 3 miles from where you are now!

The 3 Brewers of St. Albans, classic English ale (500ml) 4.0% £5.90

“We could tell you that our new ale has a deep amber colour, a light hoppy aroma and a rich and rounded malty taste balanced by subtle hoppiness, to give a supremely clean, smooth and refreshing ale. But there’s no need really. Suffice to say we think we’ve created a modern classic here and we’re pretty confident that you’ll agree.”

The 3 Brewers of St. Albans, classic Golden ale (500ml) 3.8% £5.90

“Some might say silence is golden, but it’s worth breaking that rule to let you know our new golden ale is brewed using unique Herefordshire Cascade hops which give a subtle citrus flavour, coupled with Cara malt to give a light golden colour and a hint of sweetness. We’re certain you’ll agree that we have created an exceptionally refreshing beer. So raise your glasses. The future is indeed golden...”

The Story

We are proud to be a Hertfordshire company. The Beale family can trace its company history back to 1769 when John Beale opened a shop in Oxford Street.

It is this local heritage that is still as central to the philosophy of the company today as it was almost 250 years earlier. There are two striking examples of this commitment at Beales Hotel.

There are over 130 individual pieces of art that adorn the walls of every area of the hotel. Every piece is from a Fine Art degree student of the University of Hertfordshire Creative Arts department, based here in Hatfield. Each piece comes with its own artist statement detailing the idea behind their art. Please take time to look at the art and take one of our brochures away with you that has more information.

In Hertfordshire there is a fantastic wealth of local food and we try to source our food locally where possible. Meat from Hertford, eggs from Royston and honey from our very own bees at West Lodge Park Hotel are just some of the examples of our commitment. Please read our local food brochure and feel free to take a copy away with you for more information.
